

Millville, New Jersey
A CITY OF THE ARTS

Last September, over 6,000 people came to our Arts District to view the work of hundreds of our region's artists working on paper and canvas, in clay, ceramics, metals, and fabrics. They walked High Street ... bought art, antiques, and unusual gifts ... rested in our restaurants and pubs ... refreshed themselves on our riverwalk ... and listened to continuous musical performances.

On Sunday, September 11, 2011 we are expecting even more visitors.

Join us – rain or shine – in South Jersey's acclaimed artists' colony. Glasstown.

Glasstown is preparing for its Fourth Annual Arts, Music & Antiques Festival, organized by the Downtown Millville Merchants Association.

If you are interested in introducing your artwork, fine examples of craft, or antiques to tri-state visitors, please register using the form attached.
